VOYAGER JET CENTER ADDS A NEW AIRCRAFT FOR CHARTER CUSTOMERS

A Citation X Added To Voyager Fleet And Charter Operation

PITTSBURGH, July 6, 2011 - Voyager Jet Center (VJC), the leading Pittsburgh-based aircraft management firm operating from Allegheny County Airport, today announced the addition of a Citation X to its fleet and charter certificate V0JA087M, bringing more options to its growing charter customer base.

“This new addition demonstrates our client’s desire to generate more value from their aircraft than ever before,” said Richard M. Ryan, president of Voyager Jet Center. “The combination of operational safety, efficient management, and consistent charter activity that we deliver provides peace of mind that their valued aircraft is both productive and pampered.”

Members of Voyager Jet Center’s large and growing base of private aircraft charter clients now have even more options to select the perfect aircraft to deliver the optimum combination of safety, speed, comfort and efficiency for every trip.

The Citation X is in high demand because it is the fastest business jet in production, has accommodations for up to nine passengers with a separate lavatory, and has transcontinental range.

“With this addition, we continue to expand our aircraft fleet, now including aircraft from Hawker Beechcraft, Cessna Citation and Bombardier Lear Jet. From our regional presence at Allegheny County Airport, Voyager Jet Center can provide aircraft charter and services to the entire USA, as well as international operations,” Ryan said.
